An on-site sewage facility (OSSF) requiring a maintenance contract, according to 30 Texas Administrative Code 285.91 (12) and Hood County On-site Sewage Disposal Order Section 10 (c) will be installed on the property as described above.

- 1.) The property owner of each on-site sewage facility shall continuously maintain a signed written contract with a valid maintenance provider and submit a copy of the contract to the Hood County Environmental Health Department (HCEHD) at least 30 days prior to the expiration of the previous contract.
- 2.) If the property owner or maintenance provider desires to discontinue the provisions of the maintenance contract, the maintenance provider or owner shall notify, in writing, the HCEHD, at least 30 days prior to the date service will cease. In the event that a maintenance company discontinues business, the property owner shall contract with a new maintenance provider within 30 days of the termination date and provide the HCEHD with a copy of the newly signed maintenance contract.
- 3.) All properties described herein that contain a portion of the OSSF may not be sold separately for the lifetime of the OSSF per Chapter 285.4 (b) (2) of Title 30 Texas Administrative Codes.
